

It's Time to Give Your Finances Some LOVE!

It's okay to not always love getting down into your financial spreadsheet and loving on your numbers and goals but it's so worth it. This April let us help you create a plan that will give your numbers and financial goals some much needed attention.

As always, come connect at the coffee and happy hour events as well as our cohort opportunities! They are always an easy way to keep encouraged and increase your knowledge for your business building goals and dreams.

Thinking about other ways to get active this spring? BWN has a golf club too! Jump over to the website and sign up for spring classes and outings. There's room for everyone –from never- picked- up- a- club to expert!
